

Resources for non-ELA instructors teaching ELA students

For most up to date document: <https://goo.gl/TR89Zv>

Quick tips

Quick Tips for non-ELA instructors (from Kirkwood's Ryan Dehner)

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1E7GnXtlwmwNvs7O6-8vS8YVCCoRPEOPdC0Dbe7PpsTU/edit?usp=sharing>

Articles

12 Ways to Support English Learners in the Mainstream Classroom

<https://www.cultofpedagogy.com/supporting-esl-students-mainstream-classroom/>

More advice about teaching ESL students (FAQ) from Frankfurt International School

<http://esl.fis.edu/teachers/support/faq1.htm>

Preparing ESL friendly worksheets and tests <http://esl.fis.edu/teachers/support/tests.htm>

Helping ESL students understand written texts <http://esl.fis.edu/teachers/support/commun.htm>

Russell, Natalie M. "Teaching more than English: connecting ESL students to their community through service learning." Phi Delta Kappan, June 2007.

<http://link.galegroup.com/apps/doc/A165352536/STOM?u=kcccedar&sid=STOM&xid=febe2c5d>.

Resources to share with students

Iowa City Campus Kirkwood's "Newcomer, Immigrant & Refugee Resources for Iowa City area", including English language, computer, and personal & health resources. Updated each semester: <https://goo.gl/bwz3n4>

Welcoming activities

The Story of My Name. Opening interview activity to have your students write their names phonetically and then share a story of their name. Google Doc:

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1MQrO4Qg-XjdI9sLFkEB0pFrQU5keEQRPOGnDgSNogis/edit?usp=sharing>

How to Pronounce Chinese Names.

<https://youtu.be/Fb73w3eT9tk>. From Ohio State. Basic overview of Chinese names. 7 minutes.

https://youtu.be/qCdv_p9UQHA From Ohio State. Some overview of Chinese names, history of names and practice videos. 10 minutes.

For suggested resources to add, please email Kate Hess at the Iowa City Campus Library