

Assignment Choice with Technology

Students conduct research utilizing library databases on self selected topics to present information meeting learning outcomes

Students are assigned content to teach to each other-Visual presentations, audio assignments, quiz applications

Students create evaluations on quizzing applications and/or presentation software

Utilize student academic and demographic data to create interactive experiences with technology to build academic confidence